Rotary Club of Wahroonga Vocational Awards 2022

What is a Rotary Vocational Award?

The Vocational Award Program enables us as a society to recognize individuals within our community who excel in their chosen vocation.

They also recognize when an individual has gone above & beyond the normal business activities and has achieved recognition within the wider community.

Successful recipient of a Vocational Award will be invited to be present as the guests of Wahroonga Rotary Club to receive the presentation of a plaque and reading of a citation.

What are the categories for these awards?

Pride of Workmanship Award is designed to acknowledge any member of our community, irrespective of age or vocation, who displays outstanding qualities in terms of approach, dedication, attitude, and commitment to service.

The following criteria are considered when deciding the successful recipient:

- Track record of successful commitment to a vocation or trade
- A positive approach to work
- A commitment to service in the extended community
- Peer or customer recognition.

Young Achiever Award is designed to acknowledge any younger member of our community who displays outstanding qualities in terms of approach, dedication, attitude, and commitment to service

The following criteria are considered when deciding the successful recipient:

- Candidate must be between 18 and 30 years of age.
- Candidate must have demonstrated outstanding success in vocational training, academic, sporting, artistic or business pursuits.
- Candidate may have also contributed in the form of service to the community.

How do I nominate someone?
